

Instructions for Authors

The Journal of Society for e-Business Studies

Aims and Scope

The Journal of Society for e-Business Studies is an official journal of the Korean Society for e-Business Studies since 1996. It is a refereed journal dedicated to disseminating the research and practice of electronic business. It aims to offer an integrated and interdisciplinary view of the diverse fields in electronic business. The journal accepts articles, tutorials, or state-of-the-art papers that provide a novel contribution to the field, including but not limited to the followings:

- experimental or theoretical research on e-business models and policy;
- design or application on organizational and industrial transformation with e-business;
- computer and information technology for e-business infrastructure.

Manuscripts

Manuscripts should be submitted online via the homepage of the Society at <http://www.calsec.or.kr>. Other correspondence can be addressed to Society for e-Business Studies, 4F Sungbo Yeoksam Building, 833-2, Yeoksam 1-dong, Gangnam-gu, Seoul, 135-833, Korea. Tel: +82-2-556-2257 Fax: +82-2-556-2115 E-mail: sec@calsec.or.kr.

The main text can be written in Korean or English, while the bibliographies, figures, and tables must be written in English only. The style and format of the manuscript needs to follow the journal submission guideline (투고 규정). The guideline is available at the homepage.

All manuscripts are double-blind peer-reviewed by at least 3 anonymous reviewers selected by the editor. Once the manuscript is accepted for publication, authors should go through the Authors' Check List, and provide the final manuscript along with the Copyright Transfer.
